Kittrell's Springs Female College.
GRANVILLE COUNTY, N. C.

THE NEXT SESSION of this Institution will open the second Wednesday in February, 1868
The location is unsurpassed for health and accessibility.
During the past session, in a family of nearly two hundred, there has scarcely been a case of sickness. The health of many invalid young ladies has been thoroughly restored by the celebrated mineral water found here and they have prosecuted their studies with entire success.
We are immediately on the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad, within less than a half mile of Kittrell's Depot, and in telegraphic communication with all parts of the country.
Every facility is afforded for the most thorough and extensive education.
Everything is new. Our musical instruments, including Piano Organ, Harp and Guitar, are of the finest quality.
Terms MODERATE and ACCOMMODATING.
The young ladies all worship in the College Chapel, and hence no extra clothing is required. Millinery is in no demand at Kittrell's. Parents tell us that their daughters cost them less here, in this respect, than even at home. Taking into consideration the items of dress and medical attendance, there is no cheaper school in the South. Besides, we are determined to accommodate our patrons as far as we can, as to time of payment, and to put female education within the reach of the people, in the present depressed condition of the country. OUR DAUGHTERS MUST BE EDUCATED.

State Conservative Convention!

It is resolved by the State Executive Committee of the Constitutional Union Party of North Carolina, that a State Convention of the party be held in the City of Raleigh, on WEDNESDAY, the 5th day of February, A. D. 1868, at 11 o'clock of that day.

It is confidently hoped that the friends of a Constitutional Union and civil liberty will be active in the effort to make the Convention the largest and most respectable that ever assembled in the State.

Let the Conservative people in every County of the State, where meetings have not been held, hold meetings at once, pass appropriate resolutions, appoint delegates and see that they attend the Convention.—The condition of public affairs demands the patriotic effort and co-operation of every good citizen, to save the country from impending danger.

By order of the State Executive Committee.

R. C. BADGER,
Secretary.

January 4th, A. D. 1868.

THE CONVENTION (SO CALLED.)

The pillars of the Capitol should be hung in mourning, to-day, for the murdered sovereignty of North Carolina. In the Hall, where have been collected, in days gone by, the wisdom, the patriotism, the virtue of the State, there assembles, this morning, a body, convened by an order of Congress, in violation of the Constitution of the United States and in utter disregard of the Constitution of North Carolina,—a body which, in no sense, as a whole, represents the true people of the State, which has not been elected according to the forms of our own laws, nor chosen, in the majority of instances, by those to whom those laws have committed the right of suffrage. In the seats which have been filled by some of the best and truest sons of North Carolina, will be found a number of negroes, a still larger number of men who have no interests or sentiments in common with our people, but who were left in our midst by the receding tide of war, and yet others who have proven false to their mother and leagued with her enemies.

Such is the general character of the so-called Convention which convenes, by virtue of the unconstitutional military acts, to day. There are exceptions to be found, of course, though it is problematical, under all the circumstances, whether it would not be as well that there should be no exception—that, as the "Convention" is, in no sense of the word, a North Carolina body, there should be no true-hearted North Carolinians in it. But there is a small band of them, and it behooves them, situated as they are, however impotent their efforts may prove, to do all they can to resist the mad progress of destructive Radicalism. They have the opportunity to win for themselves a warm place in the hearts of our people, and right sure are we that they will deserve it, by a staunch and patriotic devotion to the name and fame of the good old State, which all her genuine children love the more for her humiliations and afflictions.

We have been repeatedly asked the question of late, how many anti Radicals there are in the Convention. Our reply has been, and still is, that we do not know, and shall be unable to determine, until developments shall fix their status. We hope and believe that the number will be found somewhat larger than has been ordinarily supposed.

Premising that we shall endeavor to report, as faithfully as our opportunities will allow, the proceedings of the "Convention,"—that we shall not knowingly misrepresent any one, but that we shall condemn unsparingly where there is occasion for it,—we await, with a serenity amounting almost to indifference, the action of this anomalous mongrel assemblage.

COMPARATIVE RESULTS FROM WHITE AND NEGRO LABOR.—A writer in the Southern Planter and Farmer states that a gentleman in Charlotte county, Va., thus tested the comparative results of white and black labor: He furnished thirteen negroes with mules and implements and provisions to raise a crop, and at the same time furnished an outfit to two white men. The negroes raised 94 barrels of corn, 7 stacks oats and 5,000 pounds tobacco. The two white men, with a little negro girl to cook for them, raised 112½ barrels of corn, 10 stacks of oats, and 6,000 pounds of tobacco. The negroes returned the mules in a poor, emaciated condition. The white men turned their's over fat and sleek. The negroes worked four mules, the whites two. The gentlemen referred to will, this year, work white men exclusively. To show the improvidence of the negroes, he said the cart and mules were at their service to haul wood, yet they preferred to hure rails.

The above result is a common one.—White labor, as a general rule, was always more efficient and reliable than colored labor, even during the existence of slavery.—Since slavery is abolished, it is far more so. Yet in the South, white and colored labor both require great improvement in skill and efficiency. We need well instructed agriculturists, mechanics and artizans of all kinds, and a thorough and wisely conceived apprenticeship system, in the South, before we can hope to attain to the standard which is necessary.

THE RADICAL PROGRAMME.

The recklessness, desperation and sinking condition of the Radical party are made perfectly manifest, by the proposition which the House Reconstruction Committee has agreed to lay before Congress, as indicated by our telegrams, on yesterday.

Its action heretofore, has been an unblushing usurpation, trenching upon the powers of the Executive, regardless of the Constitution, and by every possible effort degrading the high office of President, simply because he stood in the way of the Radical design to break up the old government, and inaugurate a new state of things, hitherto untried by and unknown to the American people.

The last proposition ignores the Reconstruction programme in obliterating all traces of civil government in the South, trammelling the Supreme Court, indicating a purpose to annihilate it, and placing the entire unreconstructed States under military rule and under the control of Gen. Grant.—It will be seen that Mr. Stevens, a member of the Committee, objected, upon the ground that the whole scheme was designed to secure the election of Gen. Grant to the Presidency. Such a purpose is so manifest, and is so unjust to the claims of Chief Justice Chase, that the scheme may be expected to meet with strong opposition from his friends in both Houses. We are hardly prepared to expect the passage of so horrid a proposition, yet, if it fails, it will be from no love of the Constitution nor pity for the suffering South, but purely for the reason that, in the judgment of the party, it would not be politic, popular or safe.

We are pretty well prepared, therefore, to expect anything, however wicked and unjust to the Southern people. It is humiliating to be forced to belive that Gen. Grant, and others who have hitherto sustained a character for honesty and public honor, should lend themselves to a scheme so utterly repugnant to the Constitution and so ruinous to the South and the nation.

The policy indicated by the action of the Reconstruction Committe exhibits a want of confidence in the State Radical Conventions, and shows a purpose to place every thing in the hands of the military, in order to secure the election of Gen. Grant.

THE DEMOCRATIC NOMINEE—GEN. HANCOCK.

So far, while the action of the Radicals, North, points unmistakably to Gen. Grant, as the candidate of the Radical party, there appears to be a greater division of sentiment among the Democracy. Mr. Pendleton, of Ohio, and Mr. Seymour, of New York, are both spoken of, and the former is very strong in the Northwest. Democrats and Conservatives could not hesitate a moment in a choice between either of these gentlemen and a Radical, but it strikes us that Gen. Hancock is the coming man, whose military character, and, above all, whose recent civil course, stamp him as the man for the times, and one, perhaps, whose history will make a stronger impression upon the American people, than that of any other man connected with the present stirring events.

Without a precedent in the conduct of the Commanders in the Southern States, Gen. Hancock, at the outset, placed himself squarely upon the Constitution of the United States and the law, and seems to have kept constantly in view his responsibilities as a soldier and as a citizen. In doing so, he has eschewed all partizanship, and thus incurred the displeasure of the Radicals.

It is plain that he can be trusted, both by Democrats and Conservatives, and, believing that he occupies a position which commends him to a large majority of the people of the United States, with the lights before us we know no man, who would likely be chosen by the Democratic National Convention, whom we could more heartily support, with strong confidence of success, than Gen. Hancock. He has always been a Democrat, but never a partizan. He takes his position honestly and fearlessly, and dares to maintain it.

GEN. MEADE.

We have only time to direct attention to the announcement, in our telegraphic column, of the arbitrary proceeding of Gen. Meade in removing the Governor and Treasurer of Georgia. We are aware that Gen. Meade has been claimed as a just and moderate man, and we are, therefore, the more greatly surprised at his course.—All such high-handed proceedings but serve to bring out in more shining contrast the statesman-like, wise and beneficent policy of Gen. Hancock.

Gen. Meade's designation of military appointees to fill the vacancies, accords with the spirit of the latest proposed reconstruction legislation, which is believed to have the connivance of Grant and is intended to over ride all opposition to him in the South, as the Radical nominee for the Presidency. In this connection, it is significant that the reading of only the first section of the Order—that removing the State Officers;—was applauded in the Georgia Convention. The subsequent sections operated, doubtless, like a wet blanket, destroying, as they did, the hopes of that body, that some of their own cormorant crew might be permitted to enjoy the perquisites. Better any kind of rulers than the native mongrels.

THE PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION IN THE SOUTH.—It is understood that the unrepresented States will send delegates to the Conservative Presidential Convention. I also learn that it is in contemplation by the whites of the South to hold separate elections for presidential electors, and to disregard the reconstruction acts in that respect. The President is understood to favor this movement. In a certain contingency, the moral effect at least would be potent indeed. With an actual united South, and a majority of the Northern States, Congress would not dare to inaugurate a President upon the strength of the negro vote!—Wash. letter to Balto. Gazette.

BLESSINGS OF RADICALISM IN NEW YORK.—Our State debt amounts to over forty-four millions. Our people pay in taxes to the general, State, county and local governments one hundred and fifty dollars per head for every male inhabitant over twenty-five and under sixty years of age.—New York Express.

WELL DESCRIBED.

The National Intelligencer warns Gen. Meade against a certain class which he will have to encounter, in the incipiency of his administration in the Third District, and which will use every effort to bias and control him. It thus paints them, as they gathered about his predecessor, Pope:

"He was surrounded by a certain class of insurrectionary reconstructionists, rebel Radicals, sworn by each side, and forsworn to both, who, with patriotic phraseology, persuaded him to conceal their crimes under the overshadowing magnitude of his own follies. Moved by accidental compunctions of conscience, General Pope doubtlessly did attempt occasionally to restrain his inordinate appetite for flattery, but the parasites were too numerous and too skilful. He fell a victim to their superiority in vice. It is in the midst of these expert sycophants that General Meade will have to execute President Johnson's great trust of constitutional liberty.

The first principles of inductive philosophy enable us to state that these parasites will bow before the victor of Gettysburg with a hypocritical humility only equalled by the ungrateful facility with which they will have forgotten the conqueror of Corinth.

Representing nothing but their betrayal of past confidence they will pretend to represent the future hopes of the betrayed; commanding nothing but the contempt of their countrymen, they will profess to command public opinion."

The portraiture is perfect, and will stand as well for the set we have here in North Carolina, as if it were specially made for them. We fear that their fawning has been fully as successful as was that of the Georgia lick-spittles.

REACTION IN NEW HAMPSHIRE.—The Manchester Union prints a letter from Chas. Libbey, who withdraws from the Radical party, and presents his reasons very tersely for doing so. There are many indications that a great political reaction in favor of the Democracy is going on in New Hampshire. The letter is as follows:

WHITFIELD, Dec. 31, 1867.

To Hon. E. H. Rollins, Chairman Republican State Central Committee.

DEAR SIR: Having seen in the proceedings of the late Republican State Convention that I was chosen a member of the Republican State Committee, I take the earliest opportunity after learning of its organization to inform you, as its chairman, that I cannot serve in that capacity, and to give you some of the reasons which have led me to this conclusion. I think that the leadership of the Republican party has fallen entirely into the hands of the extreme and radical men. Attached as I have been to this party, events have forced me, in spite of myself, with much regret and great reluctance, to this conclusion. My conscience will not permit me longer to act with the Republican party. I feel that I have, as an American citizen, obligations of a higher character than mere fealty to party. I am, sir, for peace. I am for a restored Union and for the maintenance of the Constitution. Throughout the varying fortunes of the late civil war, down to its triumphant close, I gave the government a firm and unwavering support. I was unable, through an accident which deprived me of the use of my right hand, to actively participate in the dangers and hardships of the field, but did contribute a son to the army of the Republic, who was shot through the lungs at the battle of Fair Oaks, but whose life, through the mercy of God, was spared almost by a miracle.—When the shock of arms was over and the enemy utterly overthrown and entirely submissive, I looked for the speedy restoration of the Union under the Constitution. I need not say how sadly I have been disappointed, and how day by day my confidence in my party has waned, until now it is clean gone. I have become satisfied that the short-sighted policy of looking only at measures with reference to their effect upon the party, and of utterly disregarding their effect upon the welfare of the nation, guides and controls our leaders. To strengthen the Republican party the attempt is being made to introduce negro equality, which will amount to negro supremacy in some sections. I wholy condemn the scheme of negro equality, and believe to have negro supremacy in any section is unwise and dangerous. To do this the Constitution is trampled under foot. The common sense of the people is outraged, the business of our whole country is paralyzed and distrust and anxiety everywhere awakened. I am profoundly impressed with the serious nature of the difficulties with which the country has now to contend—its unsettled state, its immense debt. I know that the best statesmanship is necessary to extricate us from our embarrassment. I see no ability on the part of the men now in office, or disposition even to do the things necessary to be done to give the people peace, to economise and devise a system of just and equal taxation that shall cause our debt to be paid, or that shall even diminish it. On the contrary, matters daily grow worse. I feel, sir, that the country demands and must have a change of rulers, and so feeling I cannot longer act with the Republican party, but shall give my vote and influence in favor of the Democratic party.

Very respectfully yours
CHARLES LIBBEY.

A POLITICAL LAND SLIDE IN NEW HAMPSHIRE.

LITTLETON, N. H., January 8.—The Conservatives of New Hampshire held the largest and most enthusiastic meeting that has ever been held in the northern part of the State, in this place, to day. A president, twenty-three vice-presidents and three secretaries, all late of the Radical party, officered the meeting, which was addressed by Hon. E. C. Baker, of Boston, and John H. George, of Concord, who made long but interesting speeches, after which some of the prominent converts made remarks announcing their intention to vote for the Democratic nominee. This wholesale renunciation has created great surprise. One of the vice-presidents was a member of the Radical State central committee for the past and present year; another was apparently one of the most zealous at their last State Convention; none of the officers of the meeting have heretofore identified themselves with the Democrats.

THE TRIAL OF CAPT. SCHAFF.—The trial of Capt. Schaff before a Military Court Martial at Mobile, for the killing of Col. Shepherd whilst a prisoner, some time last summer, has just been concluded. Two charges were preferred against him; first, manslaughter; second, assault with intent to kill. Of the first charge the court found him not guilty; of the second, guilty, and sentenced him to pay a fine of $200 and to be imprisoned in Fort Pulaski for six months. Capt. Schaff left Atlanta on the 28th. ult., in charge of Maj. Dunn, of Gen. Pope's staff, for Fort Pulaski.—N. O. Times.

A light punisment for a brutal murder.

Wade Hampton, the ex-General, according to report, is to be one of the editors of the Charleston Mercury.

STATE NEWS

—— The Roanoke News gives an affectionate valediction to Epps and Hays, (negroes,) and Renfrew, (black-white,) delegates to the mongrel Convention, who left Halifax on yesterday. It says that their County could spare them well, were their mission to end in Hayti.

—— Another of the murderers of Col. Nethercutt has been arrested by the Sheriff of Craven.

—— The first shad of the season were sold in Goldsboro, on Saturday, at $2.50 per pair.

—— Eddy, the negro "Doctor," who was a prominent speaker at a late white-black Radical meeting in this city, and who imposed upon the credulity of and swindled numbers of his brethren in Norfolk, Petersburg and this city, has turned up in Goldsboro. He claims to be the agent of the Queen's Society, London, and authorized to lend any amount of money, provided the interest is paid in advance. He proposed to the colored people on the south side of Neuse River, to form a company of sixty—that each member should pay a dollar, and then he would lend them a thousand on account of the Queen's Society!

For the Sentinel.

Messrs. Editors:—Permit me, through the medium of your very valuable paper, to make a brief statement in reply to what you say of Cato. Your chief argument seems to be founded upon that clause of the Constitution of the United States, which says that no State shall impair contracts. This I admitted in the outset, but went on to question, whether that clause could be brought to bear under the present circumstances.

But admit that it can, the law would be at least clogged for a term of years, if we are admitted into the Union upon the terms suggested by Cato. Suppose the Democrats get the House of Representatives and the President; they cannot repeal any law passed by the present Congress, without the consent of the Senate. The Senate will stand there as a check, so as to prevent any change of Radical rule. But you say, you will take the case before the Supreme Court. What can you expect there? Would they not dodge the issue upon the question of jurisdiction, as they did in the cases taken up from the States of Mississippi and Alabama, or upon some other flimsy pretext? Is not every member of Congress as much bound to support the Constitution of the United States, as Judge Chase, or any of the associate Judges?—Are they not sworn to do it? Is there not a general concurrence of opinion between the leading members of Congress and Chief Justice Chase? It is a hard matter, therefore, to decide what length of time this Constitution will hold good. The great uncertainty of the law would induce creditors to make liberal compromises. You say that you favor compromises. Why are compromises not made? It is the fault of the creditor. Very few will take off the interest, as long as they see any chance to save principal and interest, by taking the last dime a man has, leaving him without any means of support.

I regret to see that you are of the opinion, that a stay of law will only put off the evil hour. This is the position taken by most of our learned "limbs" of the law, who remind me of a parcel of vicious blood-hounds chained, longing to be turned loose, that they may devour the people. Some of them have hundreds of thousands dollars in claims for collection. They are now having their executions levied, ready to oust the poor debtor, as soon as the term of General Sickles' order expires. In most cases they have made themselves a party to the claims by charging one tenth of the whole sum for collecting. This is contrary to the established usage, excepting claims from a distance, where the parties could not attend to it; then they became the Agent of the Plaintiff. Their duty as counsel is only to push the claim to a judgement. But such is their love of lucre, that they seem to be willing to see the people swallowed up in one common vortex of utter ruin.

To refute that position, in regard to a stay of executions, putting off the evil day, permit me to take the people of the State of North Carolina for the last year. They commenced the year with renewed energy. They went to work, and worked hard to enable them to meet their liabilities; but the fates seem to have been against them. Instead of getting twenty-five or thirty cents for cotton, as they expected, which would have been a fair remunerative price, they get only ten cents. Instead of making a thousand pounds of cotton to the acre, they make only three hundred. This was no fault of theirs; it was the unfortunate season. Nearly every one became involved in debt. Would you advise these debts forced upon them and have their lands sold at such a sacrifice, as they would be at this crisis, and deprive them from ever extricating themselves from debt? I think you, as Christian-hearted men, would say, "let them try one more year!"

How many poor young men have risen from poverty to wealth, and become useful citizens by the use of capital? What would be the true policy for debts contracted last year, would be the true policy for debts contracted before the war. Let the creditors loan the people the use of their money, and a larger portion of them will yet survive.

You say you are in favor of debtors going into bankruptcy. So am, I when the debtor is helplessly a bankrupt. But what benefit will the creditor derive from it? He could get a very small portion of his debts in but very few cases. Would it not be better for the creditor to compromise with the debtor on fair and equitable terms, than the debtor should go into bankruptcy? Would it not be better for the debtor, if he sees any chance to work out his liabilities on reasonable compromises, to do so?

You say that you would not be surprised if some such tub as repudiation will be thrown to the whale. I think the party that throws out the largest tub, will be most certain to get the whale. I think we shall touch bottom this year, soon after which, if we are governed by wise counsel, we shall go up.

CATO.

Palmyra, N. C.

The Democratic banquet in Washington, Wednesday night, has put Forney in a terrible fright. He writes a letter about it to his Philadelphia paper more than three columns long, in which he makes the amazing declaration that "the Radicals of the South are the same desperate men put down by force of arms by General Grant and his legions, and once more in battle array against the Republic." What will Underwood, Holden, &c., who pride themselves on being "Southern Radicals," say to this? Forney's mind must be terribly affected when he takes to lying against his own friends this way.

"Brick" Pomeroy says:

An exchange says that the country is sick from the effects of a Copperhead bite! Oh, no—it is just recovering from a sugar fit!

THE FIGHT WITH THE TIGER.—No desperado ever fought John Morrissey's tiger as bravely and tenaciously as the President has the radical tiger, and certainly none so successfully. There is this difference, too—that Morrissey's tiger breaks down all who venture to fight him, while the President has had hold of the radical tiger's throat for nearly three years, has hung on to him like grim death, and has just about finished him up. It won't do to bet against the Honorable John's animal, but it is safe to bet on Andy Johnson.—N. Y. Herald.

THE

ÆTNA LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY

OF HARTFORD.

ASSETS OVER $7,000,000.

PAID POLICIES BY DEATH, IN NORTH CAROLINA: $33,000.

Judge E. A. BULKELEY, President. | T. O. ENDERS, Secretary.

W. H. CROW,

MANAGER AND GENERAL AGENT

FOR THE STATE OF

NORTH CAROLINA AND PART OF VIRGINIA,

IN COMPARING THIS COMPANY WITH FORTY-TWO COMPANIES, AND BY THE REPORT of the Insurance Commissioners of Massachusetts, the following facts appear, under OFFICIAL ENDORSEMENT:

1st. The Ætna issued more policies than either of forty other Companies. More than four times the average, AND NEARLY ONE-TENTH OF ALL.

2nd. That excluding Capital, the Ætna's ratio of Assets to Liabilities is larger than that of twenty-nine Companies, AND MORE THAN THE AVERAGE OF ALL.

3rd. That the Ætna's receipts are larger than those of either of thirty-eight other Companies, and more than three times the average, and more than ONE-THIRTEENTH of all.

4th. That the Ætna's ratio of expenses to receipts is less than that of twenty-nine other Companies, and LESS than the average of all.

5th. That the Ætna's ratio of increase in premium receipts to its cost, is greater than that of any other Company, and four times the average. [See table "C," in Insurance Report.]

6th. That the Ætna's ratio of losses is sixteen per cent less than the average.

7th. That the Ætna's ratio per cent. of increase in Assets is greater than that of any other Company, and more than four times the average.

It will be observed from these comparisons that many Companies do not make so good a showing as the Ætna, although they are unquestionably reliable.

The "ÆTNA" is an old and well-tried institution, and the above extract from the highest official authority upon the subject of Life Insurance commends the Company at once to the thoughtful and serious enquirer, who wishes to make a CERTAIN provision for those depending upon him.

The Ætna loans her customers one-half the premium as long as life lasts, at six per cent., if desired, and gives no restrictions in location or travel in the United States, at any season of the year, and pays her members the of any Company doing business in this State, and is PERMANENTLY LOCATED HERE; has paid more Revenue into the STATE TREASURY than any other Company, and paid more money to Widows and Orphans than any other, and therefore, with all of these facts, well deserves the largest patronage, and IS RECEIVING IT.

The ÆTNA, being a STOCK COMPANY, gives all the benefit of dividends to her insured and none of the liabilities usual in "Mutual insurance."

Six per cent interest is allowed upon the Capital Stock of $150,000, and the balance of the profit goes to the insured, which profit or dividend is larger than any other Company doing business in the State.

The ÆTNA has over

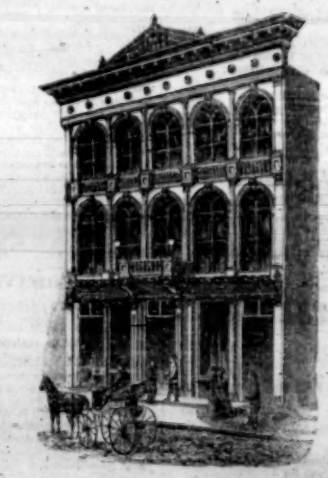
ABOVE LIABILITIES.



A VERY IMPORTANT FACT.
THE ÆTNA IS A STRANGER TO LITIGATION,
HAS 45,000 MEMBERS,
AND
HAS NEVER REFUSED TO RENEW A POLICY LAPSED DURING THE WAR.

Any other facts will be cheerfully imparted in the office, over the Store of Messrs. W. H. & B. S. TUCKER & Co.

The Convention (so-called.)—From what we learn, we take it that there will certainly be a quorum in attendance at the opening of the so-called Convention, to day.

Busier than bees in a tar-bucket are the innumerable hungry aspirants for office,—from the Speakership down to the Door-keepers. White and black are brought together in glorious commingle ment, so that it is almost impossible "to tell 'tother from which." In order to accommodate the supply as nearly as possible to the demand, it is said to be in contemplation to manufacture a few new offices, hitherto unknown in North Carolina,—such as Sergeant-at-Arms, &c. For this lattter position, it is understood that Calvin J. Rogers, of this County, is clamorous. It ought to be given to him, as a reward for voting against the Howard amendment in the last Legislature.

It was rumored that there was a Radical caucus, last night, at which the entire programme was doubtless arranged. "Boots' or Booker—"that's the question!"

Acknowledgment.—We make our grateful acknowledgemnts to our worthy friend, Pulaski Cowper, Esq., of Washington, for fifty one subscribers to the Daily Sentinel. If others of our friends would emulate this excellent example, our hands would indeed be strengthened.

Supreme Court.—This Tribunal met on yesterday,—all the Judges in attendance. About thirty gentlemen were examined and admitted to practice in the various County Courts of the State. We will give their names to-morrow.

Cotton.—This article is in demand in this market. We hear of several who wish to purchase heavily.

Brooms.—We are indebted to W. J. Palmer, Esq., Principal of the State Institution for the Deaf, Dumb and the Blind, for some handsome specimen brooms made at the Factory of that Institution. They are far superior in durability, and equal in finish, to any imported from the North. We had occasion, quite recently, to speak of the successful management of this branch of industry, under Mr. Palmer's energetic supervision.

A negro delegate, in the Richmond Convention, a few days ago, objected to a certain "pizen" in the Bill of Rights. It is supposed that he meant proviso.

The Democrats Looking Up.—A significant feature of the Democratic celebration of the 8th of January was the unmistakably hopeful look of the participants. One year ago the Democratic Committee had up-hill work to raise the steam for a creditable celebration; this year it was a decidedly spontaneous and enthusiastic affair, bringing out more of our solid, sedate, Democratic citizens than we ever remember to have seen together before on such an occasion. Everybody looked radiantly hopeful. Not a wrinkle was to be seen on the smiling face of the President. The consciousness that "my policy," so ridiculed one year ago, is now treated with respectful consideration, seemed to irradiate every lineament of his face. Judge Black was in exuberant spirits, and his ample wig, which, like Lord Brougham's nose, has a flexibility making it correspond to the workings of his countenance, fairly danced as his mobile brows went up and down in the course of his buoyant remarks. Messrs. Doolittle, Marshall, Ewing, Brooks, Blair, Hoover and others, were in the sunniest of moods, and a general air of cheerfulness and trust in the good things Providence might have in store for the Democracy pervaded the assemblage. In fact, the Democracy, here about, at least, wear the air of men who expect to win in the coming presidential campaign.—Washington Star.

Important if True.—The Baltimore American says:

"Members of Congress and others in Washington are somewhat excited over a rumor that the Supreme Court, at an early day, will reverse its decision of last spring declaring that it had no jurisdiction regarding the legality of the reconstruction laws of Congress. A new case, involving the constitutionality of the reconstruction acts of Congress, is to be brought up in the Supreme Court in a few days, and it is asserted that the court will decide said acts unconstitutional, and all operations under the same null and void. The case will involve the State of Mississippi, and the decision of the Court, it is said, will be that Mississippi is legally in the Union, as much so as New York or any other State."

The Reconstruction Acts to be Declared Unconstitutional.—I have the best authority for stating that in the cases brought before the United States Supreme Court last spring by the States of Mississippi and Georgia, testing the constitutionality of the Reconstruction acts, the decision of the majority of the Court will be adverse thereto. It is likely that the minority of the Court will be smaller than at first supposed, and there are even hints that Chief Justice Chase may not care to place himself upon the record in a dissenting opinion. Such a decision will strike down at a blow all the reconstruction work that has thus far been done, and leave the decision of the next Presidential contest in the hands of the North.—Wash. Cor. N. Y. Evening Telegram.

Squeers' and Dotheboy's hall has been outdone in the Western House of Refuge, at Rochester, N. Y., where a systematic and persistent course of brutal treatment has lately been discovered. H. C. Ward is the unworthy Principal of the institution, and the other day, after whipping one of the boys on the bare back severely, he kicked him on the head and inflicted a dangerous wound. The papers of that city say that as at present managed, the institution will only make hardened criminals of the boys whom it contains.

The first gun for 1868 has been fired!—On Monday the borough of Columbia, Lancaster County, Penn., held an election for local officers, and the result was a noble Democratic victory, for the first time in twelve years. Such an occurrence in Thad. Stevens' own county calls for a bill from him for the immediate reconstruction of the town. Let him wait, and he will hear thundering all around.—World.

CONGRESS.

Washington, Jan. 13, P. M.

A bill, authorizing the sale of Harper's Ferry, and one reducing the Federal army, were introduced.

The Judiciary Committee was required to report a bill regulating impeachment trials.

Information from the President, regarding Burlingame's Chinese Mission, was demanded.

The bill amending the Constitution, to provide a tribunal to adjudicate the differences between the Government and the States, was taken up, but the Senate went into Executive session and adjourned.

House.—Under the regular Monday rule, bills were introduced, establishing a Bureau of relief for freedmen; defining the belligerent rights of the United States; requiring two-thirds of the Supreme Court to pronounce laws unconstitutional; for the passage of the tariff bill as soon as possible; to fund the National debt; protecting American citizens abroad; and declaring the fourteenth article a part of the Constitution.

The Speaker submitted a communication from the War Department, asking transportation, South, for certain provisions.

The rules were suspended, 116 to 44, for the introduction of the additional reconstruction bill. This bill will be debated to-morrow and Wednesday, when the vote will be taken. The minority are pledged to make no dilatory motions.

The rules were suspended, and the bill was introduced, making five judges of the Supreme Court a quorum, and two-thirds of a full bench to make valid any action infringing directly or indirectly on the laws of Congress, and should a District Court's decision affect, in any way, the constitutionality or validity of the laws, the said decision shall be certified to the Supreme Court, and, unless two-thirds of a full bench concur, the said decision shall stand reversed. It passed by a vote of 116 to 39.

FROM WASHINGTON.

Washington, Jan 13, P. M.

An immense meeting was held in the North Ward, on Saturday, regarding the safety of naturalized citizens abroad. The question is assuming startling importance.

The Radical County Convention at Indianapolis have instructed their delegates to the State Convention to incorporate a plank providing for paying the bonds with legal money, unless otherwise endorsed.

It is rumored that the President directed Meade to suspend the order removing Gov Jenkins.

LATER

The impression gains that the Senate will not sustain the House in the oppressive legislation regarding the Supreme Court.

The proceedings in the House, to-day, render the passage of the new reconstruction bill, on Wednesday, as almost certain.

This Evening's Express says: "We have reason to believe that Gen. Meade has been assured that Gen. Grant will stand by him in any action that he may find it necessary to take regarding the Governor and Treasurer of Georgia."

S. S. Cox is nominated for the Austrian mission.

The second teller of the Moses Taylor New York City Bank is alleged to have defaulted. The Bank is a strong concern, having a surplus of nearly a million of dollars.

After the vote on the bill to re-organize the rules of the Supreme Court in the House, to-day, Garfield moved to suspend the rules, that he might introduce a bill to reduce the military establishment, by the discharge of one Major General, the last commissioned in the grade, before the first of January, 1868, (Hancock.) After an intimation, on the part of Brooks, Randall and others, that they would resort to filibustering to prevent the bill passing, Garfield withdrew his motion, giving notice that he would renew it on next Monday.

The Senate, to-day, after an Executive session of five hours, passed the resolution, declaring the reasons of the President for removing Stanton from the War Department insufficient, and that they do not, therefore, concur in the act of suspension. The vote on the passage of the resolution was, yeas 35, nays 6. The Senate then ordered a certified copy of the resolution sent to the President, Grant and Stanton.

Senator Thayer will introduce a bill, to-morrow, to reduce the numbers of Major Generals to four, and of Brigadier Generals to nine. The object of which is to legislate out of commission Hancock and Rousseau.

GEN. MEADE REMOVES THE GOVERNOR AND TREASURER OF GEORGIA.

Atlanta, Jan. 13, P. M.

The following order was issued this morning:

"Headq'rs 3rd Military Dist., January 13, 1868.

General Orders No. 8.

I. Charles J. Jenkins, Provisional Governor, and John Jones, Provisional Treasurer, of the State of Georgia, having declined to respect the instructions of, and failed to co-operate with, the Major-General Commanding, are hereby removed from office.

II. By virtue of the authority granted by the supplementary Reconstruction Act of Congress, passed July 19, 1867, the following named officers are detailed for duty in the District of Georgia, viz: Brevet Brig. Gen. Thos. H. Ruger, Colonel of the 33rd Infantry, to be Governor of the State of Georgia, and Brevet Capt. Chas J. Rockwell, Ordnance Corps, U. S. A., to be Treasurer.

III. The above named officers will proceed, without delay, to Milledgeville, and enter upon the discharge of the duties devolving upon them, subject to instructions from these Headquarters By order of Maj. Gen. Meade:

(Signed.) R. C. DRUM, A. A. G."

At 10¼ o'clock, this morning, this order was read to the Convention, amid applause at section first.

VIRGINIA CONVENTION.

Richmond, Jan. 13, P. M.

In the Convention, a resolution appointing a committee to enquire into the propriety of relieving Virginia from her debt, incurred prior to and during the war, was laid over.

An article, declaring that Virginia shall ever remain one of the U. S., and a substitute to the effect that the Government of the U. S. can only be dissolved by the consent of the majority, or armed revolution, both offered by Republicans, were discussed until the Committee rose.

A resolution, declaring secession null and the citizens of the Southern States still citizens of the U. S., was ordered to be printed.

THE BEAST IN RICHMOND.

Richmond, Jan 13, M.

Butler arrived to-day, and was met, at the Depot, by a large concourse of blacks. A procession of colored societies, and a number of prominent Republicans, in coaches, escorted him to the hotel.

He addressed a large crowd at the African Church to-night [It was such a speech as might have been expected, and we do not care to cumber our columns with a report of it.] He declared, however, that confiscation was impossible.

TUESDAY, JANUARY 14, 1868.

THE EIGHTH OF JANUARY BANQUET IN WASHINGTON.

LETTER FROM EX PRESIDENT PIERCE.

CONCORD, N. H., Jan. 4, 1868.

Gentlemen:—If it were in my power, as it will not be, to accept your invitation to the celebration of the fifty third anniversary of the battle of New Orleans, it would afford me pleasure on many grounds. Still it is only too apparent that no one can sit at your banquet table without contrasting, with painful emotions, the condition of our country now with what it was during the eight years that the great defender of the Crescent City was at the head of the Government.

By whom was that battle fought?—Where were the homes of the men, the result of whose steady courage on that 8th of January carried, as the news spread, not only a fresh feeling of national security, but shed radiant gladness in every hamlet, every valley, and along every hillside throughout the land? I remember well the relief and joy with which my young ear caught the sound. In sparsely settled towns families assembled together; parents went with their children to join in a prayer of thankfulness, and then to send up their united shouts for the great deliverance. Were not the soldiers under the command and leadership of General Jackson the fathers and grand fathers of citizens now disfranchised, ruined in estate, and in the want and suffering of their families, paralyzed and held down by a despotism clothed with the authority of might to execute upon the weak and helpless the behests of vengeance?

I am sure, especially if I were with you, I could not help contrasting the career of Tennessee—her political and domestic tranquility, her increasing wealth and power during the life of the sage and hero whose memory is embalmed in the hearts of all who will be at your banquet—with the deplorably humiliating reign of absolutism in the State, which, pre-eminently, he loved and ado ned.

It cannot be otherwise than salutary at all times, and particularly on such an occasion as you celebrate, to recall the events of our foreign wars, from the Revolution to the treaty of peace with Mexico, and to remember that the blood of gallant men, North and South, fighting side by side in a common cause, mingled on every battle field. If the prosperity of all the colonies, and later, of all the States, and the united prowess of their people were essential in those conflicts, have they ceased to be so now? Will they be less so should we be required, in any complication of events, to assert and maintain, by force of arms, on sea and land, the rights of American citizens? Whatever may be before us, let us hope that the period is not remote when the Union shall be, in fact, restored—each State standing forth as the coequal of every other State, with "dignity, equality, and rights unimpaired." There are, it seems to me, marked and cheering indications that the people are rising in their majesty with united strength to deliver from misrule their country and themselves—signs that integrity and economy in the conduct of public affairs, instead of profusion, peculation, and abounding fraud, are, by their command, to be the rule again—that taxation is to be equalized—that the bondholder is not to screen himself behind exemption, and thus cast upon another of more humble means his fair proportion of the public burden.

You, at least, will welcome the conviction, that the time is at hand when statesmanship, humanity, and patriotism will better meet the demands of the nation, than wild theories outside of the Constitution—a wicked malevolence toward neighbors, if they happen to be of our race, and a selfish clinging to power, place, and plunder.

With high consideration, your friend and servant,

FRANKLIN PIERCE.

FROM HON. JOHN QUINCY ADAMS.

QUINCY, January 1, 1868.

Messrs. J. D. Hoover, and others, Committee:

GENTLEMEN: I have received your kind invitation to join with you and others in celebrating, by a banquet in Washington on the 8th. instant, the anniversary of the battle of New Orleans. It would be a great pleasure to me to be present, but I fear that other engagements will render it impracticable. But absent, I shall still join most heartily in the sentiment of the occasion. It is well for us in these days of darkness and trial to commemorate the recurring anniversaries "marked evermore with white" in our national annals.

There never was a time in our history when it was more important to awake the dormant sensibilities of mutual good will and national fraternity from one end of the land to the other. It cannot be that the generous and magnanimous men of the North can much longer cherish or endure the domination of vindictive passion or retributive revenge in dealing with their vanquished and bleeding brothers at the South; still less exchange the cordial "welcome home" of forgiveness for a trembling traffic in a strained and hampered mercy. For my own part, I am ashamed of this unmanly distrust and fearful suspicion of our prostrate fellow citizens. Is there anything in the purpose or result of the war, which justifies the victor in such a fractricidal quarrel in throttling his foe after he is down and holding up his hands in defeat and despair? No brave man in his personal quarrel will treat thus an opponent who acknowledges defeat and renounces further warfare. But to refuse to forgive and forget the past enmity of our own flesh and blood, to scornfully sneer at his promises and protests, and try to extort fallacious security from his deep distress, is not only an unworthy rancour and a pitiful timidity. It is a folly of a fatal character. Men and peoples may fight, and when the fight is over, shake hands and grow faster friends than ever, and so might we; but never in this way; never by substituting for the confiding confidence of assured power, suspicious demands for security and humiliating imposition of terms. No reconciliation ever sprang from fear. This may not be statesmanship, but I believe it to be human nature, and that is a good enough substitute for me.

It is because I think that our people, both North and South, do believe, after all, in deciding a fight man fashion, and then disdaining to bear a grudge, that I am glad that such honorable and memorable events as that which you celebrate should be called afresh to the minds of all of us. In it there is nothing sectional, nothing narrow, nothing partisan. It was a triumph, won, to be sure, by Southern skill and bravery, but common to the whole country. Such achievements, fitly commemorated, should tend to lift up the heart of the nation to a higher and more comprehensive kindness and fellowship than we have known for many a long year, and assure to the new era a resplendent brilliance of united progress which may even shadow the shining memories of the early days of the Republic.

Gentlemen, let us never for a moment despair of the final result, nor for an instant slack in the struggle to arouse the nobler nature of the people. Setting aside all lesser aims, and rejecting meaner issues, let us march steadfastly to the certain victory of national constitutional reunion.

I can offer, in conclusion, no sentiment so appropriate to the event which has called you together, or more congenial to the spirit which pervades its purpose, than the poetry at the close of President Lincoln's inaugural:

"The mystic chords of memory, stretching from every battle field and every patriot grave to every living heart and hearthstone all over this broad land, will yet swell the charm of the Union, when again touched, as surely they will be, by the better angel of our nature."

I am, gentlemen, very respectfully yours,

JOHN QUINCY ADAMS.

SENTINEL.

Published in the City of Raleigh, N. C.,

William E. Pell, } Editors.
Seaton Gales, }

In view of the scarcity of money, and the severity of the times, the Proprietor of the SENTINEL has determined to reduce the terms of the paper, to commence after the 31st. DECEMBER, next, and to make such improvements in its general character as will commend it to the patronage of an enlightened public.

In POLITICS it will be thoroughly Conservative, advocating, at all times:

A strict observance of the Constitution of the United States, and the harmonious Union of equal States;

Obedience to his and the enforcement of order;

The supremacy of the civil over the military in time of peace;

The equality of the three co-ordinate branches of the government;

The sovereignty of States over their own internal affairs, in strict conformity to the Constitution;

The maintenance of freedom and justice to all, without distinction of color, but the supremacy of the white race as the governing class;

Opposition to Radicalism in all its phases.

As a NEWS journal, it shall be equal to any.

The principal markets will be regularly published.

Its LITERARY character shall be maintained and improved, by contributions from our best writers.

Finally, the SENTINEL will seek to be the special promoter of the educational, moral and economical interests of the people of North Carolina.

Important Order from Gen. Canby.

General Orders No. 164.

I. Paragraph II of General Orders No. 10, from the Headquarters of the Second Military District, dated April 13, 1867, is modified as follows:

SUITS FOR DEBTS.

Judgments or decrees for the payment of money on causes of action arising in North Carolina between the 20th of May, 1861, and the 9th day of April, 1865, and in South Carolina between the 19th day of December, 1860, and the 20th day of April 1865, shall not be enforced, by execution, against the person or property of the defendant. Proceedings for such causes of action now pending, shall be stayed, and no suit or process shall be instituted or commenced on such causes of action until after the civil government of the respective States shall be established in accordance with the laws of the United States.

Paragraph III of the same order is modified as follows:

EXECUTIONS.

Sheriffs, coroners and constables are hereby directed to suspend the sale of all property upon execution, or process under any judgment or decree of a court of the so-called Confederate States, or of the State of North Carolina, rendered between the 20th. day of May, 1861, and the organization of the provisional government of said State, under the President's proclamation of the 29th. day of April, 1865, or of the State of South Carolina, rendered between the 19th. day of December, 1860, and the organization of the provisional government of the said State, under the President's proclamation of the 30th. day of June, 1865, unless the written consent of the defendant be entered of record, and except in cases where the plaintiff or his attorney, upon oath, supported by corroborative testimony, shall allege that the defendant is disposing of, removing, or about to remove, his property beyond the jurisdiction of the court, with intent to defraud his creditors; provided, that no such judgment, so rendered, within the periods aforesaid, shall be a bar to the commencement, in a State court, of a new suit upon the same cause of action in any case in which, by law, the defendant may remove or appeal the same to a court of the United States.

FORECLOSURE OF MORTGAGE.

The sale of real or personal property by foreclosure of mortgage, is likewise suspended in the cases embraced in paragraphs II and III, of said order No. 10 as above amended, except in cases where interest money accruing subsequent to the 20th. of April, 1865, shall not have been paid before the day of sale, and all previous restrictions on such sales are revoked.

Paragraph IV of the same order is modified by substituting the 20th. day of April, 1865, for the 18th. day of May, 1865.

SUITS ON NEGRO DEBTS.

All proceedings for the recovery of money on contracts, whether under seal or by parol, the consideration of which was the purchase of slaves, made subsequent to the 1st. day of January, 1863, are suspended. Judgments or decrees entered for such causes of action shall not be enforced.

HOMESTEADS.

In all sales of property under execution or by order of any Court, there shall be reserved out of the property of any defendant who has a family dependent upon his or her labor, a dwelling house and appurtenances, and (if in the country) twenty acres of land, or so much thereof that the whole shall not exceed in value the sum of two thousand dollars, and in a town or city, the immediate lot upon which such dwelling house is situated; and necessary articles of furniture, apparel, subsistence and implements of husbandry, trade, or other employment, to the value of five hundred dollars. The homestead exemption shall inure only to the benefit of families. In other cases the exemption shall extend only to clothing and implements of trade or employment usually followed by the defendant, of the value of two hundred dollars. The exemptions hereby made shall not be waived or defeated by the act of any defendant who has a family dependent upon him or her for support, and the exempted property shall be ascertained and defined by the sheriff or other officer enforcing the execution, who shall call to his aid two impartial citizens to make the necessary appraisement, and shall make report thereof to the Court.

ARREST FOR FRAUDULENT DEBTS.

Paragraph X is hereby modified so as to authorize arrest in civil actions ex contractu only in cases where the demand is past due, and the defendant has been guilty of a fraud in contracting the debt sued for, or has removed or disposed of his property, or is about to do so, with intent to defraud his creditors, or is about to leave the State with such intent.

EXECUTORS AND TRUSTEES.

Paragraph XVI, is amended by adding thereto: All proceedings in any court of North Carolina, or South Carolina, recognizing or sanctioning the investment of the funds of minor heirs, or of females, or of insane persons, in the securities of the late rebel government, or the securities of the states of North Carolina or South Carolina, created for the purpose of carrying on war against the Government of the United States, will be suspended until the question of the validity of such investments shall have been determined by the courts of the United States, or by national legislation. And nothing in the provisions of this order, or the order No. 10 above cited, shall be held to bar or hinder the recovery, by suit, of the estate of any minor heir, female or insane person, (cestui que trust), whether in the hands of executors, administrators, trustees, guardians, masters or, clerks of equity courts, and other fiduciary agents, or invested by them in their fiduciary character.

DISTILLERIES.

II. General Order 25, of May 20, 1867, is revoked; and on and after the first day of January, 1868, the distillation of spirituous liquors in this Military District will be subject to such restrictions only as are imposed by the laws of the United States and of the States of North and South Carolina, respectively.

BAR ROOMS.

III. Paragraphs VI and VII of General Orders No. 82, dated May 30, 1867, are revoked, and the power to grant licenses for the sale of spirituous or intoxicating liquors is remitted to the proper local authories, to take effect on and after the 1st. day of January, 1868, and to be subject to the following conditions:

1. The municipal authorities granting the license shall be answerable that the parties to whom such licenses are granted, together with their sureties shall be responsible persons and of good moral standing in the community, and that both principal and sureties shall be able to qualify individually in double the amount of the bond required, and that the bond shall be a lien upon the personal property of both principal and sureties, and upon proof of default shall warrant the summary seizure and sale of so much of the property of either or both as may be necessary to satisfy the forfeiture or fine and costs.

2. Drunkenness or disorderly conduct on the premises shall work the forfeiture of the license and of the penalty of the bond.

3. The owner or keeper of any bar-room, saloon or other place at which intoxicating liquors are sold, and all other persons interested or connected therewith, shall be regarded as principals in any action of damages growing out of any assault, riot, affray or other disorder occurring on the premises, or directly traceable thereto.

4. All bar-rooms, saloons or other places at which intoxicating liquors are sold, shall be closed on the day or days of any general, special election, and for the twelve hours next preceding the opening and next succeeding the closing of the polls at each election; and the sheriffs of counties and districts and the chief of police of cities and towns shall have power to direct the closing of bar-rooms and other places for the sale of intoxicating liquors, whenever it may be necessary in their judgment to preserve order and quiet.

5. The proceeds of all licenses, forfeitures and fines, under the local regulations or under the provisions of military orders, will be devoted to the support of the poor, and as soon as realized will be turned over to the Commissioners or Overseers of the poor of the District County, City or Town in which they are accrued, and the Commissioners or Overseers will at the end of each month report to the Provost Marshal-General of the District the amount received by them during the month, specifying the name of the parties from whom it was received.

6. The penalties imposed by this order or by the local police regulations, may be enforced in any civil or military Court, and upon conviction the Court may award to the informer a sum not exceeding fifty per cent. of the forfeiture or fine. And it is made the duty of all Sheriffs, Constables, and Coroners of Counties and Districts, and the police officers and towns, to be vigilant in the enforcement of the police regulations and the provisions of this order in relation to the sale of intoxicating liquors.

The provisions of this paragraph will be held to apply to such licenses granted under General Orders No. 82, to inn-keepers, as remain unexpired after the first of January, 1868.

DISTRICT COURTS.

IV. To expedite the speedy trial of prisoners confined for minor offences, and diminish the cost of their maintenance, all committing magistrates will, on the 15th. and last days of each month, report to the judge of their county or District Court all commitments made by them during the preceding half month, specifying the date of commitments, the names of the prisoners, and the offences for which they were committed, to the end that the judges may, whenever in their opinion the number of prisoners or other considerations of public interest call for it, hold s[illegible] of their courts, for the purpose of the trial of such cases. The additional expenses of holding such special terms will be a charge upon the State Treasury, and the accounts therefor will be audited and paid as accounts of a similar character are now audited and paid, and if the salaries now paid the judges should be inadequate in view of the additional labor performed by them, a reasonable addition, upon proper representations through the Governor of the State, will be allowed.

PILOTAGE.

V. The pilotage regulations now existing in the States of North and South Carolina are so far modified that, on and after the first day of March, 1868, all passenger steam vessels, regulated by the laws of the United States, and carrying a pilot commissioned by United States Commissioners, shall be exempt from the compulsory payment of pilotage.

NORTH CAROLINA POLL TAX.

VI. So much of the act of the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, entitled "An act to raise monies," ratified on the 26th. day of February, 1867, as makes it "the duty of all persons and corporations to list and pay the [poll] tax of such persons liable to the same, as are in their employment, on the 1st. day of April of each year, as laborers," is rescinded, and hereafter all individual taxes will be assessed directly upon and collected directly from the individuals from whom they are due; provided, that the provisions of this order shall not apply to the taxes levied for the current year except that double poll tax shall not be enforced if the original tax be paid on or before the 1st. day of March, 1868.
